

Engaging Exposition

by Daniel L. Akin, Bill Curtis, and Stephen Rummage
Foreword by David Platt

ABOUT THE BOOK

In the homiletics field, a text has been needed that blends hermeneutics, sermon development, and sermon delivery. Engaging Exposition fills that gap with what its experienced authors call a “3-D approach” to preaching.

Bill Curtis writes about the Discovery process—how to equip the student to discover the meaning of a biblical text by using sound principles of interpretation, and to move from biblical analysis to biblical interpretation.

Danny Akin addresses the Development process—how to equip the student to develop expository sermons based upon results of the interpretive process, and to move from the Main Idea of the Text (MIT) to the completed sermon.

Stephen Rummage explains the Delivery process—how to equip students to deliver expository messages using the completed sermon, and to move from an understanding of speech communication principles to persuasive delivery.

BEST-SELLING POINTS

- Three respected pastors create a text explaining how to effectively combine hermeneutics, sermon development, and sermon delivery in what they call a 3-D approach to preaching (Discovery, Development, Delivery).
- Foreword by New York Times best-selling author David Platt (Radical)
- Professors who adopt this text for classroom use can receive access to free related online teaching materials through B&H Publishing Group.
