Whosoever Will
A Biblical-Theological Critique of Five-Point Calvinism
Edited by David L. Allen and Steve Lemke

ABOUT THE BOOK
Arising from the John 3:16 Conference held in late 2008 at First Baptist Church of Woodstock, Georgia, Whosoever Will presents a biblical-theological assessment of and response to five-point Calvinism. Baptist leaders offering an alternative to the doctrine’s TULIP tenets include Paige Patterson (Total Depravity), Richard Land (Unconditional Election), David Allen (Limited Atonement), Steve Lemke (Irresistible Grace), and Kenneth Keathley (Perseverance of the Saints).

The book also includes a series of articles on crucial theological and ministerial issues impacting Calvinism by Bruce Little (“Libertarian Free Will and the Problem of Evil”), Alan Streett (“A Defense of the Public Invitation”), Malcolm Yarnell (“Historical Baptist Ecclesiology and Calvinism”), and Kevin Kennedy (“Was Calvin a Calvinist?”).

BEST-SELLING POINTS
• Based on the John 3:16 Conference of 2008, this book presents essays that offer an alternative to Calvinism in regard to understanding how God works in salvation.
• Also includes a foreword by Southern Baptist Convention president Johnny Hunt, preface by Dr. James Leo Garrett, and a sermon on John 3:16 by Jerry Vines.
